

Scriptures to remember

1. God is Infinite - God is eternal (no beginning and no end), but also, His grace, mercy, love, kindness, goodness, sovereignty, and many other attributes (character qualities) are always available and never run short.

~Hence, as with the sovereignty of God, so the infinity of God requires submission rather than understanding.~ http://www.bunyanministries.org/expositions/attributes/10_Infinity.pdf

I can trust God because He will never stop being all that He claims to be in the scriptures.

2. God is Omnipresent - God is everywhere all the time. There is never an event or gathering or corner of the earth where God is not present. He is in the happy times when life feels safe and comfortable. And, praise the Lord, He is in the hard times when life feels like nothing can be fixed. This is hard to think about because there are many sad things that happen everyday. But it is an amazing comfort that God is not allowing the sin in a situation to win. He is in the moment of sadness. He is not surprised by an event or confused. He does not leave us in moments of need or in moments of celebration. And he isn't just aware. Our next point talks about that...

3. God is Omniscient. - God is all knowing! AGH! You mean He just read my mind! Yes. You mean He knows the conversation I just had with my sibling/friend/mom/dad. He sure does! Does He know my future? Yes. Does He know where the point of this virus situation is? And even better, it is for our good! Does He know what is happening in China and Mozambique in Africa at the same time? Yes! And every other place as well! And He isn't just aware, He is involved. He knows what is happening and how each decision will play out in the end.

- c. Job 37:16

Draw a picture that helps you remember to say thank you to God for knowing everything about everything!

I can trust God because He knows everything that is happening without surprise and is working for my good.

4. God is Omnipotent - God is all powerful! He can create the world with just His words. He can heal the sick, open the eyes of the blind, and He even raises the dead. Death has no power over God, which gives us much to celebrate! Because He is all-powerful, the penalty of death we deserve because of the sin we have, has been conquered! Praise the LORD!
